

IDEA BRIGADE

Study Guide

9 . 10 . 11
OCTOBER

Introduction

Idea Brigade is a 2-round industry revival and entrepreneurship category. Delegates must revive a struggling or obsolete industry in Round 1, before creating an entirely new business concept in the final round.

Round 1: Industry Revival

Delegate Cap: 2-3

Delegates take part in a Shark Tank-style boardroom challenge, where they must modernize a struggling or obsolete industry with a new business model.

Teams will deliver a 90-second-2-minute elevator pitch explaining how they plan to monetize and scale their concept, followed by a 3-minute Q&A. One of the judges will act as the “Impossible Customer,” a difficult customer who constantly changes their demands and makes conflicting requests.

Delegates will be tested on how well they listen, adapt, and remain composed under pressure.

Judging Criteria:

- Pitch and presentation /10
- Adaptability and composure /10
- Commercial viability /10
- Financial feasibility /10
- Innovation /10
- Q&A performance /10

Note: This is an elimination round.

Round 2: New Venture

Delegate Cap: 2-3

Presentation: Maximum 7 minutes, followed by Q&A

Teams advancing from Round 1 must create a completely new product or business concept from scratch.

Businesses must be submitted before the category begins. Teams will present their concept to the judges in under 7 minutes, followed by questioning designed to test their understanding, reasoning and ability to defend their decisions.

Judging Criteria:

- Quality of work /10
- Practicality /10
- Originality /10
- Market and customer impact /10
- Feasibility /10
- Analytical thinking /10

Note:

- All phones must be handed in at the beginning of the round and returned at the end.
- No electronic devices may be used during the round.
- Any use of electronics will be strictly penalised.
- Concepts must be original and submitted before the round begins.
