

8:00 AT DORSIA

Study Guide

9 . 10 . 11
OCTOBER

Introduction

At approximately 8:45 PM on October 8, 2026, local law enforcement responded to reports of rapid gunfire originating from the Dorsia Apartments located in Queens, New York. Upon arrival, officers discovered blood-stained footwear impressions immediately outside the entryway of the residence belonging to Mian Zoraiz Ilyas, a prominent businessman and the proprietor of Zoro Holdings Limited.

Inside the apartment, authorities recovered the body of Mian Zoraiz Ilyas in the vicinity of the dining table, lying in a pool of blood with twelve gunshot wounds to the dorsal region. An official police investigation has been launched to determine the circumstances surrounding the incident.

Point system:

This category will have a point system. Every team will start with 200 points and can use their points in any round. Every round has a different use for the points.

Round 1: Visit to Zoraiz's House with a twist

Delegate Cap: 3

Duration: 7 minutes per team

Detectives will be let into the apartment of Mian Zoraiz Ilyas to investigate how he died. They will have limited time to gather all the necessary information. But there is a twist...

Delegates can buy hints in the round using their points. The top 3 teams will be awarded extra points.

Note:

- Depending on the number of teams participating, this may be an elimination round.
- Delegates will need to be familiar with Pigpen cipher for this round.

Round 2: The Police Auction

Delegate Cap: 2

Duration: 2 hr 45 min

Detectives will be allowed into a police auction where evidence and items found during the raids and initial police interrogations are being sold. Delegates will have to understand which items are relevant and bid on them in order to use them in their reports.

Note: Points in this round will be used as auction money.

Round 3: Interrogate?

Delegate cap: 3

Duration: 12 minutes per team

Detectives will be taken into a room where they can question the suspects. Delegates will be provided 2 minutes each to interview 6 suspects, and they are allowed to record this interview on their phones.

Note: Points in this round can be used to buy extra time with each suspect. The cost for this will be revealed later.

Round 4: Case Submission

Right after the end of the third round, delegates will have to submit a report on the case. The report must be submitted within the deadline; delayed submission may cause disqualification.

Submission Method:

Reports can be in any of the following formats: PPT, docs, PDF, etc.

No Google docs/slides URL will be accepted.

Note: Points have no value after the end of this round.

Judging Criteria:

- Accuracy of Judgement /5
- Evidence used to prove judgement /15
- Reasons why others are innocent /10
- Aesthetics (report) /5
- Linking evidence /5
- Creativity /10
